

LGI Moving Forward Residency Program / 2024

Info Pack

We are currently seeking Expressions of Interest for LGI's 2024 Moving Forward residency program.

This residency opportunity provides artists with time, money and support to further develop projects that are ready to be refined and are approaching an outcome. At the culmination of their in-studio time, Moving Forward residents will present a showing of their work, or share part of their artistic process through a workshop, talk or publication.

This information pack is designed to offer the information required to apply for the program, who is eligible and how to apply.

If you have any questions or wish to receive this information in a large print, text-only or alternative format, please contact our Producer Estelle Conley at estelle@lucyguerininc.com. You can supply your phone number via email if you would prefer to discuss via phone.

Applications are now open and close 9am Wednesday 8 November 2023.

Who can apply?

- Choreographers, trained and professional dancers, recent graduates, and dance artists with a track record of creating work.
- LGI encourages applications from artists identifying as First Nations, CALD, Deaf or Disabled, and LGBTQIA+.
- Applications can be made by individuals, collectives, or companies.

About the Moving Forward residency program

- One to three-week funded residencies at WXYZ Studios designed to support artists to progress a project towards production.
- Suitable for projects that are ready to refine and are approaching an outcome.
- Moving Forward residencies include a Critter session (an invited or public sharing), and residents provide a dedicated blog post for the LGI website.
- Residents receive a stipend of $1,000 per week.
- These residencies can be fulltime only (Monday-Friday, 12-6pm).
- We are able to support up to 9x Moving Forward residency weeks in 2024 (1-week, 2-week or 3-week residencies)

Moving Forward residents also receive:

- Access to LGI Morning Class for free during your residency for you and your collaborators.
- Use of studio equipment.
- Support and guidance from the LGI team and access to a hot desk.

Other FAQs

- All residencies in this application round must be completed during 2024.
- Residencies will take place at WXYZ Studios, 130 Dryburgh Street, North Melbourne, unless the company and artist agree otherwise in advance.
- LGI is committed to making our programs and events accessible. If you have accessibility requirements, please note them in your application or contact our Producer Estelle to discuss at estelle@lucyguerininc.com.
