The Arcadians Theatre Group will stage Dames at Sea, described as a musical for young and old with nostalgia and silliness for all.

Dames at Sea was a hit show of the 1968 off-Broadway season, an all-singing, all-dancing tap extravaganza based on the camp nostalgia of 1930's Hollywood musicals.

An energetic all-American girl arrives in the Big Apple with nothing but a pair of tap shoes in her suitcase.

She falls in love with a sailor (who just happens to be a songwriter), and then saves a Broadway show when the star can't go on.

Information nights will be held May 31 and June 2, auditions are June 7 and 9, with the season to run from August 26 to September 10.

Inquiries to the producer, Patricia Green, on 0418 422 624.

The Arcadians Theatre Group performs at The Miners Lamp Theatre, 141 Princes Hwy, Corrimal.
